PROGRAM NOTES

The next production of the Sumter Little Theatre will be "The Curious Savage" under the direction of Grady Deas of Florence. "The Curious Savage" is by John Patrick who also wrote "Lo and Behold" and "The Hasty Heart," both former presentations of this Theatre, as well as "The Teahouse of the August Moon," which was presented by the Theatre last fall. "The Curious Savage" contains the same blend of humor, pathos and wisdom which has endeared The Teahouse of the August Moon to enthusiastic audiences.

The spring musical will be Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta" under the direction of Irene Schlesinger.

The Columbia Town Theatre will present Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" as its early spring production.

NO SMOKING IN THE AUDITORIUM
